

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

MAR. 1, 1956

TORRANCE HERALD

Eleven

MRS. CLARENCE RAZER
... Flights Vows

Jean Hicks Becomes Mrs. Razer in All-Blue Ceremony at the Greenwich Wedding Chapel

Miss Jean Hicks, daughter of Mrs. Vona Hamilton, 1726 Date Ave., became the bride of Clarence Razer in an afternoon ceremony at the Greenwich Wedding Chapel on Jan. 22.

An all blue theme was used in the wedding decorations and the bride's gown was a poudre blue net and lace creation. A teal blue hat and veil completed her costume. The bride's bouquet was of orchids and stephanotis. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Abe Shriner.

The couple are spending a honeymoon in Mexico and upon their return will be at home at 1054 W. 105th St.

The bride was graduated from Fremont High school and UCLA.

The bridegroom, nephew of Mrs. Nellie Razer of Kansas City, attended Washington High school and recently completed duty with the United States Navy.

Dorothy Smith Will Wed Paul Germain Tomorrow

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Smith, 1325 Engracia, are this morning announcing the approaching marriage of their youngest daughter, Dorothy Leone, to Paul Eugene Germain, son of Mrs. Ethel Germain, of Wilmington.

The bride is a native of Torrance and was graduated from the local high school. She has been employed at the Los Angeles General Hospital.

The future bridegroom recently returned from Japan, where he had served six years with the Navy.

The wedding will take place tomorrow at the First Christian Church with the Rev. H. M. Sipple officiating. The bride-elect was complimented recently at a shower given by Mrs. Ethel Germain and her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Jenkins.

Three Clubs Combine for Spring Dance

Torrance's three dance clubs, Triple T, Los Fiestadores and Sobada, will stage their third annual spring dance on March 25, at the Mayflower Ballroom. Frank James' orchestra will furnish the music for dancing and a cocktail party will be held from 8 until 9 p.m. at the ballroom.

Plans for the affair, which usher in the spring social season were made at a committee meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hamilton. Representing Triple T, were Mmes. M. A. Bauman, Eugene Cook, John Tweedy and Ray Larson. Sobada was represented by Mr. and Mrs. Swayne Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lee. Los Fiestadores representatives were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hamilton and Dr. and Mrs. Philip Malloran.

Spring floral arrangements will decorate each club's registration table.

A Bon Voyage For Travelers

A bon voyage party honoring Mrs. Dorothy Rojo and Mrs. Irene Hopkins, who leave tomorrow for New Orleans where they will begin a six weeks tour of the Caribbean was given by their sewing group at the home of Mrs. B. W. Roberts, 1609 Amapola, last Thursday evening.

The centerpiece on the table was a replica of the ship on which the two local women will sail from New Orleans. Tipped champagne glasses from which were streamers of serpentine added to the clever decor of the ship. At either end of the ship was a figurine representing the travelers. The ship was entitled "Good Ship Jamaica," as the honor guests plan to visit Jamaica and Florida before returning home.

A shower of bon voyage gifts was presented followed by refreshments.

Gathering to bid them bon voyage were: Mmes. Dorothy Post, George Probert, Frank Paquin, B. Bingham, John Malville, Mae Sherkey, Harriet Leech, Guy Kelly, Harville Guttenfelder, and Baker Smith.

MISS DEE ANN MOULTON
... Plans Wedding

Dee Ann Moulton Will Wed Wilton Jones in Las Vegas

On March 17 in Las Vegas, Miss Dee Ann Moulton will become the bride of Wilton L. Jones, Jr.

The engagement and marriage plans are being announced today by the future bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lee Dudley, 1734 W. 256th St. Lomita. Parents of the bridegroom-to-be are Mr. and Mrs. Wilton L. Jones, Sr. of Downey.

Miss Moulton and her fiancé are both employes of the Shell Oil Co. in Torrance. The bride-elect was graduated from Narbonne High School in 1952 and Mr. Wilton was graduated from the Texas University at Austin. He is in the accounting department at the oil firm.

DINNER GUESTS

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Agapito last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kettinger and son, Tommy, of Waltham.

AT LUNCHEON

Mr. M. A. Bauman was among the guests at a luncheon given by her sister, Mrs. Charles Hayes in Flintridge last Monday.

MRS. JAMES MARVIN JOHNSON
... Wedding Announced

Sanders-Johnson Wedding Is Solemnized in Laguna, Feb. 11

Climaxing a romance which began on the Torrance High School campus was the wedding of Miss Sandra Rose Sanders and James "GeGe" Johnson, which took place Feb. 11 in the Little Church by the Sea, in Laguna Beach. Simplicity marked the candlelight ceremony which was attended by immediate families and close friends. The Rev. Frank L. Dowell officiated.

Attending the couple were Miss Marilyn Sanders, sister of the bride, and William R. Johnson, brother of the bridegroom. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doane Sanders, 1828 Acacia Ave., and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, 23211 Huber St. He is also the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Johnson, 811 Acacia.

The new Mrs. Johnson, a graduate of the Torrance High class of 1954, was editor of the high school paper. She was president of the Inter-club council, president of the Tri-Hi-Y, and five times officer of her class as well as being active in Tartar Ladies and YWCA work. The bridegroom was graduated in 1952. He was captain of the football team and was chosen most valuable player that season. He held the office of president of the student body, varsity club president, and was active in Hi-Y, Tartar Knights and scholarship society.

Mr. Johnson is now a senior at UCLA, where he is majoring in physical education. He is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity and the Kappa White at the university he has participated in rugby and intra mural wrestling.

Mrs. Johnson will be graduated in June from El Camino.

IN LAS VEGAS

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Freeman, 383 Via Pasqual, spent last week end in Las Vegas.

New Officers Installed at Seaside Hi-Liters Second Birthday Affair

In a candlelight ceremony at the second birthday party of the Seaside Hi-Liters Club, held Feb. 21, at the home of Mrs. Robert Ledwidge, 5124 MacAfee Rd., new officers were installed. Mrs. Garrett Eustace assumed the presidency of the club and installed with her, were Mrs. Frank Callahan, vice president; Mrs. James W. McClune, secretary, and Mrs. Walter Ansley, treasurer.

Mrs. Robert Ledwidge, outgoing president, expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of the club during her term and Mrs. Eustace outlined the plans for the coming year.

Mrs. J. W. McClune gave the annual club report. Mrs. Ledwidge was presented with a gift of appreciation, and birthday gifts went to Rose Nazarian, Trudy Eustace, Hamet Fullerton and Rosalee McClune.

The club members also presented a baby lock to Mrs. Lorena Bedrosian for her new daughter, Mrs. Ann. Gaines thanked the club for the gift of a baby lock. After the business meeting, the beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut and served with coffee by Mrs. Q. Buntage.

Members present were: Mmes. Frank Callahan, Fay Nazarian, Walter Ansley, Garrett Eustace, Jr., Bud Bedrosian, Harris Patterson, Robert Ledwidge, J. C. Gaines, Robert Fullerton, James McClune and Betty Mitchell.

Guests were Mmes. Jack Hepfig, Romaine Meteney and L. C. Archibald. The club has a decided civic promotion program spread at intervals with social functions.

Their greatest achievement during the year 1955, was the installation of street lights in the Seaside area. The Hi-Liters also sponsor a yard improvement contest, from June 1 to Aug. 31. The Torrance Park Dept. serve as judges.

The group also sponsored a Christmas decoration contest in which the Chamber of Commerce served as judges.

Among their philanthropic projects a Valentine party was given for the women of Ward 10 at Harbor General Hospital and an Easter party was given for these same patients.

At Christmastime the club provided food and clothing for the needy.

IN LAS VEGAS

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McCoy, 2712 Torrance Blvd. and Mrs. H. L. Mitchell spent three days last week in Las Vegas. While there they were guests at the Sands Hotel.

Baratta-Chandler Names Linked in Marriage In Rites Friday at Lomita Community Church

Lomita Community church was the setting last Friday evening, Feb. 24, for the 7 o'clock wedding ceremony in which Miss Sandra Jeanne Baratta, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Baratta, 1722 251st St., exchanged wedding vows with Herschel R. Chandler, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Chandler of Medora, Ill.

The church sanctuary was banked with white stock, white chrysanthemums and fall white candles. Mrs. Jeanette Bartlett played the nuptial music, and accompanied Helen Peters and Walter Frost as they sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The heavy bridesmaids in their rainbow pastel bouffant gowns were picturesque as they headed the bridal entourage. Miss Donna Johnson wore a pink ballerina length net and tulle gown. Miss Natalie Hawkins was in a light blue gown, Miss Sylvia Stone in French blue and Miss Ellie Deegan in shrimp lace and tulle. Each carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Gwen Baker, as the junior bridesmaid, wore a gown of yellow net and tulle and carried yellow carnations.

Next in line was the maid of honor, Miss Virginia Ward whose gown was of lavender tulle. Her bouquet was made of yellow carnations.

Immediately ahead of the bride and her uncle, Walter Spurgeon who gave her in marriage, was five-year-old Vicki Garrison as flower girl. Ring bearer was four-year-old Mark Peters.

The bride was radiant in her wedding gown of Chantilly lace and satin. The bodice was of lace and scalloped panels of lace overdraped the full satin skirt which fell into a chapel train. Long pointed sleeves and a Victorian collar were details of the gown. The veil of French bridal illusion edged in Chantilly cascaded from a pearl tiara and she carried a small white Bible and a white orchid encircled with stephanotis.

MRS. HERSCHEL CHANDLER
... To Live in Illinois

LOOKING FORWARD TO A BRIGHT YEAR... are these new officers of Seaside Hi-Liters club as they assume their duties for the coming year. They are, from left, Mrs. Garrett Eustace, president; Mrs. Frank Callahan, vice president; Mrs. James McClune, secretary; and Mrs. Walter Ansley, treasurer. The club, which has a combined civic and philanthropic program, celebrated its second birthday at a party at the home of Mrs. Robert Ledwidge, outgoing president. Mrs. Ledwidge installed the officers in a candlelight service.